SERIES Family 08 | 09

Beethoven Lives Upstairs

2 p.m. | Sunday, November 9, 2008 | Yardley Hall
The arrival of an eccentric boarder turns a young boy's life upside down. Ludwig van Beethoven has moved in upstairs. At first, Christoph resents their new tenant but slowly he comes to understand the genius of the man, the torment of his deafness and the beauty of his music. A Classical Kids production.

The Magic of Christmas

2 p.m. | Saturday, December 20, 2008 | Lyric Theatre
Fast becoming a holiday tradition for Kansas City families, The Magic Of Christmas includes beloved Christmas carols, popular songs of the season, costumed characters, amazing dancers, dazzling soloists, child vocalists, the Kansas City Symphony Chorus and an appearance by Santa Claus!

Peter And The Wolf

2 p.m. | Sunday, February 8, 2009 | Yardley Hall
The Kansas City Symphony performs while the audience watches the 2008 Oscar-winning animated film of Prokofiev's classic tale. This unique combination of film and live music brings the story to life as never before.
"Vivid animation...delighted the audience: This Peter should make lots of little wolf-cubs very content!"—The Times, London

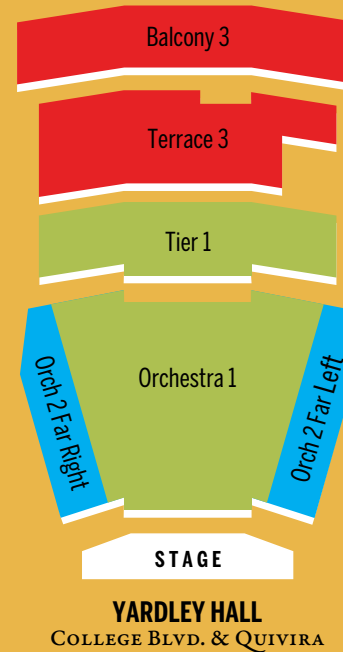

How The Gimquat Found Her Song

2 p.m. | Sunday, April 26, 2009 | Yardley Hall
In this enduring classic, a rare and silent bird lives in hiding until she meets a magician who takes her on the search for the perfect song. Join us on this sparkling musical journey through the history of western music. Produced in cooperation with Platypus Theatre.

Note: We have been informed by the Kansas Department of Revenue that the Symphony is now required to collect Kansas sales tax on all of our performances that occur in the state. While the Symphony is tax exempt in Missouri as a nonprofit corporation, there is no comparable exemption in Kansas, therefore the Symphony is now collecting applicable taxes to meet the Kansas sales tax requirement. We apologize for any difficulty this may cause our customers.
