

ATTORNEY GENERAL OF MISSOURI

JEREMIAH W. (JAY) NIXON
ATTORNEY GENERAL

JEFFERSON CITY

65102

P.O. Box 899
(573) 751-3321

September 25, 2008

Kansas City Symphony
Attention: Jeanni Holmes
1020 Central, Suite 300
Kansas City, MO 64105-1794

RE: Charitable Organization & Solicitation Law, 407.450 -- 407.478 RSMo, 2000
Registration and Exemption for: Kansas City Symphony
Registration No. CO-282-08

Dear Ms. Holmes:

Attorney General Jeremiah W. (Jay) Nixon has asked me to respond to your recent letter regarding the above.

Based on the facts submitted to our office, it appears that your organization is exempt from registration under the Charitable Organizations & Solicitations Law, Sections 407.450 to 407.478 RSMo 2000.

Your letter and other supporting documents have been retained for our files. In addition, we invite your organization to be included on the Missouri Attorney General's Check a Charity web page. The web page will offer a profile of each organization, including a description of its charitable purpose, contact information and basic financial information about the organization with a focus on the program-spending ration. Consumers will be able to easily access information that will assist in evaluating solicitations and choosing wisely when responding to charitable appeals.

To be included on the Attorney Generals charity web page please complete the enclosed form and attach the information requested on page 2. Please mail your information to:

Missouri Attorney General's Office
Attn: Judy Murray
P.O. Box 899
Jefferson City, MO 65102-0899

Thank you for your continued cooperation. If you have further questions please contact the undersigned or visit us at www.ago.mo.gov.

Very truly yours,

JEREMIAH W. (JAY) NIXON
Attorney General

Rhonda Johnson

Rhonda Johnson
Registration Specialist
Consumer Protection Division

Enclosure