

POPS SERIES CONCERTS

We are delighted to present two special programs for our Pops series subscribers. Additional programs for the April through June period will be announced later this winter.

Jack Everly is known as a leading Pops conductor in America. Maestro Everly will soon be celebrating his 11th anniversary as music director of the “National Memorial Day Concert” and “A Capitol Fourth” on PBS, which reach millions of viewers annually. In addition to conducting major orchestras all over North America, he is the principal Pops conductor of the Indianapolis and Baltimore symphonies, as well as the Naples Philharmonic and the National Arts Centre Orchestra in Ottawa. Everly was appointed by Mikhail Baryshnikov to conduct the American Ballet Theatre for 14 years, and then joined Marvin Hamlisch on Broadway for a number of productions. We are overjoyed to welcome back Maestro Everly to our stage.
