

KANSAS CITY
SYMPHONY

MySymphonySeat.org

KC SYMPHONY CLASSICAL STREAMING SCHEDULE

SYMPHONY POPS

AMERICA – FROM RAG TO ROCK

Sunday, May 9 at 5 p.m. on MySymphonySeat.org

Our David T. Beals III Associate Conductor Jason Seber celebrates the many styles of American popular music, from folk to fiddle, ragtime to rock, blues to Broadway, jazz and so much more! Enjoy selections from “West Side Story,” Gershwin, Bernstein and John Williams.

CLASSICAL

MOTHER AND CHILD

A special free Mother’s Day on-demand performance for everyone!

Sunday, May 9 on MySymphonySeat.org

WILLIAM GRANT STILL Mother and Child

COPLAND AND KORNGOLD

Sunday, May 23 at 5 p.m. on MySymphonySeat.org

AARON COPLAND Three Latin-American Sketches

ERICH KORNGOLD Symphonic Serenade

STRAVINSKY’S OCTET, WITH DVOŘÁK’S SERENADE

Sunday, June 6 at 5 p.m. on MySymphonySeat.org

IGOR STRAVINSKY Octet (1952 revision)

ANTONÍN DVOŘÁK Serenade in D Minor, op. 44

CLAUDE ARRIEU Woodwind Quintet in C Major

TRANSFIGURED NIGHT

Sunday, June 20 at 5 p.m. on MySymphonySeat.org

ARNOLD SCHOENBERG Verklärte Nacht

Visit the CONCERTS tab at kcsymphony.org for full program details. Call (816) 471-0400 to become a subscriber.

Current subscribers may access programs at MySymphonySeat.org. Streamed Kansas City Symphony performances will be available for at least 30 days of on-demand viewing following each initial premiere.

These concerts are not available for in-person seating. All programs subject to change.

These streaming programs are made possible by the generous support from the Symphony’s Annette Bloch NextGen Venture Fund.