KC SYMPHONY OPENS SELECT PERFORMANCES TO CHILDREN UNDER 12

Negative COVID-19 tests allowed for children to attend select December performances

KANSAS CITY, Mo. | November 15, 2021 — The Kansas City Symphony will open the following concerts to unvaccinated children under the age of 12, so long as the child is wearing a mask while inside the Kauffman Center and Helzberg Hall, is accompanied by a fully vaccinated adult and presents proof of a negative COVID-19 test:

CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL: Saturday, December 18 @ 1 p.m. CHRISTMAS FESTIVAL: Sunday, December 19 @ 2 p.m. HOME ALONE – Film + Live Orchestra: Thursday, December 23 @ 7 p.m. HOME ALONE – Film + Live Orchestra: Friday, December 24 @ 11 a.m.

The COVID-19 test must have been administered no more than 72 hours prior to the performance. Only PCR tests will be accepted. Antigen, or rapid, test results will not be accepted.

For all other performances not listed above, only fully vaccinated individuals will be admitted. Persons who have already purchased tickets for these performances and would like to exchange their tickets for another performance should contact the Kansas City Symphony Box Office at (816) 471-0400, Monday-Friday, 10 a.m.-5 p.m.

As conditions within the community change and admission policies evolve, you may visit kcsymphony.org/coronavirus for the latest updates and information.
