Celebrating his 11th anniversary as music director of the “National Memorial Day Concert” and “A Capitol Fourth” on PBS, Maestro Everly proudly leads the National Symphony Orchestra in these patriotic celebrations on the West Lawn of the U.S. Capitol. These concerts attract hundreds of thousands of attendees on the lawn and the broadcasts reach millions of viewers and are some of the very highest rated programming on PBS television.

Maestro Everly is also music director of the IPL Yuletide Celebration, now a 30+ year tradition. He led the Indianapolis Symphony in its first Pops recording, “Yuletide Celebration, Volume One,” that included three of his own orchestrations. Some of his other recordings include “In the Presence,” featuring the Czech Philharmonic and Daniel Rodriguez, Sandi Patty’s “Broadway Stories,” the soundtrack to Disney’s “The Hunchback of Notre Dame,” and “Everything’s Coming Up Roses: The Complete Overtures of Jule Styne.”

Originally appointed by Mikhail Baryshnikov, Maestro Everly was conductor of the American Ballet Theatre for 14 years, where he served as music director. In addition to his ABT tenure, he teamed with Marvin Hamlisch on Broadway shows that Hamlisch scored. He conducted Carol Channing hundreds of times in Hello, Dolly! in two separate Broadway productions.

Maestro Everly, a graduate of the Jacobs School of Music at Indiana University, was awarded an honorary Doctor of Music degree in 2021 from his alma mater. He is a recipient of the 2015 Indiana Historical Society Living Legends Award and holds an honorary Doctor of Arts degree from Franklin College in his home state of Indiana. He is a proud resident of the Indianapolis community, and when not on the podium, you can find Maestro Everly at home with his family.
